

NEOZOIC

Meaning: NEOZOIC refers to the most recent era in geological time, marked by significant geological and biological changes, particularly in the context of the evolution of life on Earth.

1. The NEOZOIC era is characterized by significant geological and biological changes on Earth.
2. Scientists are increasingly interested in the fossil record from the NEOZOIC period to understand evolutionary trends.
3. During the NEOZOIC, mammals began to diversify and occupy numerous ecological niches.
4. The study of NEOZOIC climates can provide insights into current climate change patterns.
5. Paleontologists have discovered that the NEOZOIC was marked by unique adaptations among various species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neozoic>