

NEPOTIST

Meaning: Nepotist: a person who shows favoritism to relatives or friends, especially by giving them jobs or positions of power regardless of their qualifications.

1. The company's new CEO was criticized for being a nepotist, as he promoted his unqualified cousin to a senior position.
2. In a small town, being a nepotist often meant that family ties outweighed merit in job opportunities.
3. Many voters were concerned that the politician's nepotist tendencies would lead to corruption within the administration.
4. Despite his talent, the young artist struggled to gain recognition in a nepotist industry that favored family connections over skill.
5. Her reputation as a nepotist tarnished her credibility, making it difficult for her to build a diverse team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nepotist>