NEPTUNICENTRIC

Meaning: Neptunicentric refers to a model or perspective in astrophysics that centers around Neptune or emphasizes its role in the formation and dynamics of planetary systems.

1. The concept of neptunicentric models has gained traction in modern astrophysics.
2. In his lecture, the professor explained the implications of a neptunicentric perspective on planetary formation.
3. The artist's latest work takes a neptunicentric approach, highlighting the beauty of Neptune as the focal point.
4. Critics argue that a strictly neptunicentric view oversimplifies the complexities of the solar system.
5. She published a paper advocating for neptunicentric theories in the context of exoplanet studies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neptunicentric