

NERVELESS

Meaning: NERVELESS: lacking in nervousness or anxiety; exhibiting calmness and confidence.

1. The artist painted with a nerveless hand, displaying confidence in every stroke.
2. Despite the chaos around her, she remained nerveless, guiding her team with unwavering resolve.
3. His nerveless demeanor during the presentation impressed the board members, who appreciated his calmness.
4. In the face of danger, she felt strangely nerveless, as if all fear had evaporated from her being.
5. The athlete's nerveless performance under pressure earned her a place in the national team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nerveless>