

NEURINE

Meaning: Neurine is a compound involved in the metabolism of nerve cells, with potential implications for neurodegenerative diseases.

1. Neurine is a compound that plays a role in the metabolism of nerve cells.
2. Researchers have been studying neurine for its potential effects on neurodegenerative diseases.
3. The presence of neurine in certain foods suggests a possible dietary influence on brain health.
4. Understanding the functions of neurine may lead to new approaches in treating neurological disorders.
5. Recent studies indicate that neurine could be linked to the regeneration of nerve tissue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neurine>