

NEUTRALIST

Meaning: Neutralist: a person who maintains an impartial stance, avoiding bias or taking sides in a debate or conflict.

1. The neutralist approach in the debate allowed both sides to present their arguments without bias.
2. As a neutralist, she often found herself mediating conflicts between friends with differing opinions.
3. His neutralist stance on the controversial issue earned him respect from both supporters and opponents alike.
4. In sociology, a neutralist perspective can help researchers analyze behaviors without imposing personal judgments.
5. The organization's neutralist policy aimed to promote dialogue rather than division among its members.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neutralist>