

NEUTRALITY

Meaning: Neutrality is the state of not supporting or helping either side in a conflict or disagreement.

1. The country maintained its neutrality during the conflict, refusing to take sides.
2. Her neutrality in the debate allowed for a more balanced discussion among the participants.
3. In the classroom, the teacher emphasized the importance of neutrality when discussing sensitive topics.
4. The organization's stance on neutrality helped it gain the trust of both parties involved in the negotiation.
5. Many believe that neutrality is essential for fostering peaceful relations between rival nations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neutrality>