

NEUTRALIZATION

Meaning: Neutralization is the process of counteracting or eliminating the effects of a substance or situation, often to achieve a safe or balanced state.

1. The neutralization of the acid in the experiment was crucial for safety.
2. Efforts toward the neutralization of political tensions have been ongoing for years.
3. Neutralization can occur naturally in ecosystems as a response to environmental changes.
4. In chemistry, neutralization typically refers to the reaction between an acid and a base.
5. The neutralization of the opposing views helped foster a more productive discussion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/neutralization>