NEWS-LETTER

Meaning: A newsletter is a regularly distributed publication that provides information and updates on specific topics or events to a particular audience.

1. The community center publishes a monthly newsletter to keep residents informed about local events.

2. I always look forward to receiving the newsletter from my favorite gardening club.

3. She decided to write an article for the school newsletter to share her recent volunteer experiences.

4. After subscribing to the newsletter, I discovered many interesting articles related to my hobbies.

5. The company's newsletter included important updates about upcoming projects and employee achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/news-letter