

NEWSMONGER

Meaning: Newsmonger: a person who spreads rumors or gossip, often about current events or local happenings.

1. The townsfolk quickly labeled him a newsmonger for spreading rumors about the local elections.
2. She couldn't stand the incessant chatter of the newsmonger at the coffee shop who always had the latest gossip.
3. As a newsmonger, he thrived on the excitement of sharing breaking stories with anyone who would listen.
4. Despite his intentions, being a newsmonger often led to misunderstandings and hurt feelings among friends.
5. The newsmonger was often seen as both a source of entertainment and a nuisance in their close-knit community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/newsmonger>