

NICKER

Meaning: NICKER (noun): a soft, low sound made by a horse, often expressing recognition or a desire for attention.

1. The horse let out a soft nicker as it recognized its owner approaching the stable.
2. She could hear the gentle nicker of the foal, a sign that it was hungry and seeking its mother.
3. As the trainer walked by, the stallion gave a cheerful nicker, eager for attention and treats.
4. The nicker of the mare echoed through the barn, creating a calm atmosphere for the other animals.
5. He paused to listen to the nicker of the horses, appreciating the peaceful sounds of the farm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nicker>