

NICTATION

Meaning: Nictation is the act of blinking or closing the eyelids, often reflexively, to moisten and protect the eyes.

1. Nictation often occurs as a reflex action, helping to keep the eyes moist and protected.
2. The sudden nictation during the presentation caught everyone's attention, highlighting the speaker's nervousness.
3. Researchers studied the role of nictation in various species to understand its evolutionary significance.
4. While some animals exhibit frequent nictation, others may do so only in response to specific stimuli.
5. Nictation can be an interesting topic in discussions about animal behavior and adaptive mechanisms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nictation>