

NIGH

Meaning: 'NIGH' means near in time or space; approaching.

1. The storm clouds gathered, and it was clear that the end of summer was nigh.
2. As the clock struck midnight, the festivities felt nigh to their conclusion.
3. After weeks of anticipation, the day of the big event was nigh, filling everyone with excitement.
4. With autumn approaching, the leaves began to change color, signaling that winter was nigh.
5. The deadline for submissions is nigh, so be sure to finalize your work soon.
6. The sun was nigh setting, casting a warm glow over the horizon.
7. With winter nigh upon us, preparations for the cold months began in earnest.
8. The deadline for the project is nigh, and we must work quickly to finish.
9. As the storm approached, the sky grew dark, and the rain was nigh inevitable.
10. Her dreams of traveling the world felt nigh impossible without sufficient funds.
11. The sun was nigh setting, casting a warm glow across the horizon.
12. With winter nigh upon us, it's time to prepare for colder days.
13. The deadline is nigh, and we must finalize our plans immediately.
14. In her heart, she knew that the moment of truth was nigh.
15. He felt that peace was nigh, after years of turmoil and strife.
16. The storm clouds gathered, and the sky grew dark, signaling that trouble was nigh.
17. As the deadline approached, the pressure to complete the project became nigh unbearable.
18. With the festival just days away, excitement among the townsfolk was nigh palpable.
19. In the fading light of dusk, the mountains loomed larger, their majesty nigh overwhelming.
20. After years of hard work, her dream of opening a bakery was nigh realization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nigh>