

NIGRIFICATION

Meaning: Nigrification refers to the process of attributing or emphasizing African cultural elements and identities, often in the context of enhancing understanding of historical significance and racial identity.

1. Nigrification of cultural practices can lead to a richer understanding of their historical significance.
2. The term nigrification often emerges in discussions about racial identity and societal perceptions.
3. Scholars debate the implications of nigrification within the context of globalization and cultural exchange.
4. In literature, nigrification can serve as a powerful motif for exploring themes of heritage and identity.
5. The nigrification process in urban areas has sparked conversations about gentrification and community displacement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nigrification>