

NIGRINE

Meaning: Nigrine refers to a deep, dark pigment or color, often derived from certain minerals, used in art to create a sense of mystery.

1. Nigrine is often associated with the deep, dark hues found in certain minerals.
2. The artist chose nigrine pigments to evoke a sense of mystery in her latest painting.
3. In the field of geology, nigrine can refer to specific dark-colored rocks that contain iron.
4. Researchers discovered that nigrine compounds possess unique properties beneficial for various applications.
5. The term nigrine has historical significance in literature, symbolizing both darkness and richness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nigrine>