

NIL

Meaning: NIL (noun) refers to a value of zero or nothing, often used in the context of scores or amounts.

1. The team's performance in the championship match resulted in a score of nil.
2. Despite their best efforts, the charity event raised nil for the local shelter.
3. In the final tally, the experiment yielded nil results, prompting further investigation.
4. His contribution to the project was valued at nil by the committee.
5. The athlete's hopes for a medal were dashed when he finished with a nil in the qualifying round.
6. The team's chances of winning the championship were reduced to nil after their latest loss.
7. She felt a sense of nil satisfaction after achieving her goal, as it didn't bring her the joy she expected.
8. In the final exam, his score was nil, reflecting his lack of preparation throughout the semester.
9. Despite his efforts, the project's budget remained at nil, leaving the team scrambling for resources.
10. The value of the asset had diminished to nil, prompting the company to write it off completely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nil>