

NITROCELLULOSE

Meaning: Nitrocellulose is a highly flammable compound derived from cellulose, used in the manufacture of explosives and as a film-forming agent in coatings and lacquers.

1. Nitrocellulose is a key ingredient in the production of smokeless gunpowder.
2. The artist used nitrocellulose lacquer to achieve a glossy finish on the wooden surface.
3. In the laboratory, nitrocellulose is often employed in the formulation of explosives.
4. The invention of nitrocellulose revolutionized the field of ammunition manufacturing.
5. Due to its flammable nature, nitrocellulose must be handled with extreme caution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nitrocellulose>