

NITROHYDROCHLORIC

Meaning: Nitrohydrochloric refers to a highly corrosive acid solution composed of nitric acid and hydrochloric acid, commonly used in laboratories for applications such as metal etching and cleaning.

1. The chemist carefully prepared a solution of nitrohydrochloric acid for the experiment.
2. Nitrohydrochloric acid is often used in laboratories for metal etching and cleaning.
3. When mixed in the right proportions, nitrohydrochloric acid can dissolve gold and platinum.
4. The safety protocols for handling nitrohydrochloric acid must be strictly followed to avoid accidents.
5. Researchers discovered that nitrohydrochloric acid could enhance the extraction of certain minerals from ores.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nitrohydrochloric>