NITROPRUSSIDE

Meaning: Nitroprusside is a medication used as a vasodilator to rapidly lower blood pressure in emergency situations, particularly in cases of severe hypertension.

1. Nitroprusside is often used in emergency medicine to manage severe hypertension.

2. The patient was administered nitroprusside to rapidly lower their blood pressure during a hypertensive crisis.

3. Nitroprusside, a potent vasodilator, can cause significant blood pressure drops if not monitored carefully.

4. Healthcare providers must be cautious when using nitroprusside due to its potential side effects, including cyanide toxicity.

5. In the operating room, nitroprusside is frequently utilized to control intraoperative hypertension.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nitroprusside