

NO

Meaning: 'No' is an adverb used to indicate a negative response or refusal.

1. I asked if she wanted to join us, but she shook her head and said no.
2. The answer to the proposal was a firm no, leaving no room for negotiation.
3. Despite his enthusiasm, the project was met with a resounding no from the board.
4. She quickly responded with a no when he suggested they skip the meeting.
5. In the face of peer pressure, he stood his ground and confidently said no.
6. No, I cannot attend the meeting tomorrow.
7. She gave a firm no when asked if she wanted to join the party.
8. The answer to the question was a resounding no from everyone in the room.
9. He shook his head and said no, signaling his disapproval.
10. After considering the proposal, she decided that the answer was no.
11. No, I can't attend the meeting tomorrow.
12. She said no when I asked her to join us for dinner.
13. There was no way to change his mind once he had made a decision.
14. He felt a sense of relief when the answer was finally no.
15. After much consideration, they decided to go with no for the proposal.
16. No, I don't think that's a good idea.
17. She answered the question with a firm no.
18. After considering all options, my response was a resolute no.
19. The sign clearly stated "No parking allowed."
20. When asked if I wanted dessert, I politely replied no thank you.