

NOBILIFY

Meaning: To nobilify means to elevate or dignify someone or something, often by associating with nobility or highlighting their esteemed qualities.

1. The king sought to nobilify his lineage by marrying into a distinguished family.
2. In her speech, she aimed to nobilify the contributions of the local heroes in the community.
3. The artist's work seemed to nobilify the everyday experiences of ordinary people.
4. To nobilify their achievements, the organization hosted a gala to honor their volunteers.
5. His efforts to nobilify the traditions of his ancestors were evident in his cultural celebrations.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nobilify>