

NOBILITATION

Meaning: Nobilitation is the process of elevating an individual or family to noble status, often through recognized achievements or contributions to society.

1. The nobilitation of the family occurred after generations of hard work and dedication to their community.
2. In medieval times, nobilitation was often granted to those who displayed exceptional valor in battle.
3. The king's decree led to the nobilitation of several commoners who had proven their loyalty.
4. After the nobilitation process, the newly elevated nobleman was expected to uphold the values of his new status.
5. Cultural changes in society have influenced the criteria for nobilitation throughout history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nobilitation>