

NOBLE-MINDED

Meaning: Noble-minded refers to possessing high moral principles and ideals, characterized by generosity, justice, and a commitment to the welfare of others.

1. Her noble-minded approach to charity inspired many in the community to contribute.
2. He was often praised for his noble-minded ideals, which focused on justice and equality for all.
3. In a world that often prioritizes self-interest, her noble-minded spirit stood out as a beacon of hope.
4. The noble-minded leader advocated for policies that would benefit the most vulnerable members of society.
5. Despite facing criticism, his noble-minded commitment to truth and integrity never wavered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noble-minded>