

NOBLENES

Meaning: Nobleness is the quality of being honorable, selfless, and morally admirable, often demonstrated through acts of sacrifice or integrity.

1. Nobleness often shines through in moments of selfless sacrifice for others.
2. The nobleness of her character earned her the respect and admiration of the entire community.
3. In times of crisis, true nobleness reveals itself in those willing to stand up for what is right.
4. His nobleness was evident in the way he treated even the most vulnerable members of society.
5. The nobleness of their ideals inspired generations to strive for a better world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nobleness>