

NOCENT

Meaning: NOCENT: causing harm or injury; morally or legally culpable.

1. The judge found the defendant to be nocent, leading to a swift acquittal.
2. In the realm of ethics, one must distinguish between nocent actions and their consequences.
3. Her nocent remarks during the meeting stirred up unnecessary tension among colleagues.
4. The scientist argued that certain environmental pollutants were nocent to wildlife populations.
5. Despite his past, the community viewed him as fundamentally nocent, deserving of a second chance.
6. The jury found him nocent, despite the lack of concrete evidence against him.
7. Her actions were ultimately judged as nocent, leading to a re-evaluation of the case.
8. In legal terms, being nocent implies that a person has committed an offense, regardless of their intentions.
9. The court's decision hinged on whether the defendant's behavior was deemed nocent or merely negligent.
10. As the investigation unfolded, it became clear that the nocent party had acted out of desperation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nocent>