

NOCENTLY

Meaning: NOCENTLY (adverb): In a manner that is innocent or free from harm, often characterized by a lack of awareness of potential consequences.

1. She spoke nocently, unaware of the chaos her words would unleash.
2. The child played nocently in the garden, blissfully ignorant of the storm approaching.
3. Innocent laughter filled the room as the siblings nocently shared their secrets.
4. He gazed at her nocently, not realizing the complexities of their relationship.
5. They danced nocently under the stars, lost in the moment and free from worry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nocently>