

NOCK

Meaning: Nock (verb): To fit an arrow onto the bowstring in preparation for shooting.

1. She carefully began to nock the arrow onto the bowstring, ensuring it was secure.
2. The skilled archer demonstrated how to nock the arrow quickly and efficiently.
3. Before taking aim, he always made sure to nock the arrow correctly for precision.
4. As the sun began to set, she took a moment to nock her final arrow for the competition.
5. He felt a surge of excitement as he nocked the arrow, ready to release it into the distance.
6. The archer skillfully nocked his arrow before taking aim at the distant target.
7. With a gentle tug, she nocked the bowstring, preparing for her next shot.
8. As the sun set, the hunter quietly nocked another arrow, ready for the evening's hunt.
9. He carefully nocked the arrow and focused on his breathing to steady his aim.
10. In archery competitions, the precision of how you nock the arrow can greatly affect your score.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nock>