

NOD

Meaning: NOD (verb): To move the head up and down as a sign of agreement or to indicate drowsiness.

1. She gave a slight nod in agreement when the proposal was presented.
2. The teacher noticed a few students nodding off during the lecture.
3. With a simple nod, he signaled that he understood the instructions clearly.
4. As the music played, the crowd began to nod their heads in rhythm.
5. The dog would nod its head whenever it recognized a familiar voice.
6. She gave a quick nod of agreement before continuing the conversation.
7. The dog seemed to nod along to the rhythm of the music.
8. He felt a gentle nod from the audience, encouraging him to keep speaking.
9. As he listened to the lecture, he would occasionally nod to show he was engaged.
10. With a slight nod, she acknowledged his apology and moved on.
11. She gave a brief nod of acknowledgment before continuing with her speech.
12. The child's eyes grew heavy, and he began to nod off in his chair.
13. With a subtle nod, he signaled that he understood the instructions perfectly.
14. Seeing her old friend, she couldn't help but nod in recognition from across the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nod>