

NOGGING

Meaning: NOGGING: A structural element, typically made of wood or other materials, used to provide support between wall studs, often visible in construction.

1. Nogging is often used in construction to provide additional support between the studs of a wall.
2. The old house had a charming character, with its exposed nogging visible in the living room.
3. When renovating, we discovered the nogging was rotting and needed to be replaced.
4. In traditional timber framing, nogging helps to stabilize the structure while adding an aesthetic detail.
5. The builder explained that nogging serves both structural and insulation purposes in modern homes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nogging>