

NOMENCLATOR

Meaning: Nomenclator: a person responsible for assigning or organizing names, especially in scientific classification or cataloging systems.

1. The nomenclator meticulously organized the vast array of species names for the botanical garden.
2. In the ancient library, a skilled nomenclator ensured that each scroll was correctly labeled for future reference.
3. To streamline the research process, the team developed a comprehensive nomenclator of all the chemical compounds studied.
4. The nomenclator's expertise was crucial in standardizing the terminology used in the scientific community.
5. During the conference, the nomenclator presented the updated list of classifications for various marine organisms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nomenclator>