

NOMINALIZE

Meaning: Nominalize: to convert a verb or adjective into a noun form in order to create more complex sentence structures or enhance clarity in writing.

1. The linguist explained how to nominalize verbs to create more complex sentence structures.
2. In academic writing, it is often necessary to nominalize certain phrases to enhance clarity and precision.
3. The ability to nominalize adjectives can significantly enrich one's vocabulary and expression.
4. Students learned to nominalize action words in order to improve their essays and reports.
5. By nominalizing the main idea, the author was able to shift the focus of the discussion effectively.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nominalize>