

NOMINOR

Meaning: NOMINOR (verb) - to officially propose or recommend someone for a position, award, or honor.

1. The committee decided to nominar a candidate for the prestigious award.
2. In her speech, she expressed gratitude for being nominar by her peers.
3. After much deliberation, they chose to nominar the local hero for the honor.
4. He was thrilled to be nominar for the position, as it was a dream opportunity.
5. The process to nominar someone requires careful consideration of their achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nominor>