

NON-FEASANCE

Meaning: Non-feasance is the failure to act when there is a legal duty to do so.

1. The contractor was found liable for non-feasance after failing to address safety issues at the construction site.
2. In legal terms, non-feasance refers to a party's failure to take action when there is a duty to do so.
3. The plaintiffs argued that the city's non-feasance in maintaining the roads led to numerous accidents.
4. Non-feasance can often be more difficult to prove in court than actual misconduct.
5. Her lawsuit centered around the non-feasance of the property management company regarding necessary repairs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/non-feasance>