

NONALIENATION

Meaning: Nonalienation refers to the state or principle of fostering human connection and community, countering feelings of disconnection or isolation.

1. The philosophy of nonalienation emphasizes the importance of human connection and community.
2. In a world increasingly driven by technology, the concept of nonalienation becomes more vital than ever.
3. Nonalienation encourages individuals to engage with their social environments rather than retreat into isolation.
4. The artist's work reflects a deep commitment to nonalienation, seeking to bridge the gap between the self and the collective.
5. Through nonalienation, we can cultivate a sense of belonging that enhances our overall well-being.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonalienation>