

NONAPPOINTMENT

Meaning: Nonappointment refers to the act of not appointing someone to a position or role, typically communicated through a formal letter or announcement.

1. The committee's decision to issue a nonappointment letter surprised many candidates.
2. After careful deliberation, the board announced the nonappointment of the interim director.
3. Her nonappointment was seen as a setback for her promising career in academia.
4. The nonappointment process was long and filled with uncertainty for the applicants.
5. Despite his qualifications, the nonappointment left him feeling disheartened and overlooked.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonappointment>