

NONCOHESION

Meaning: Noncohesion refers to the lack of unity or coherence in a group or piece of writing, resulting in disorganization and hindering effective communication or progress.

1. Noncohesion in the team led to a lack of progress on the project.
2. The essay suffered from noncohesion, making it difficult for readers to follow the argument.
3. In her speech, the noncohesion between her ideas resulted in confusion among the audience.
4. Addressing the noncohesion in the discussion was crucial for a productive dialogue.
5. The artist aimed to convey a sense of noncohesion in the chaotic brushstrokes of the painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noncohesion>