

NONCOINCIDENCE

Meaning: Noncoincidence refers to an occurrence or situation that is not random or accidental, suggesting a significant connection or underlying reason.

1. The discovery of the same rare species in two isolated ecosystems was regarded as a noncoincidence by the researchers.
2. Her sudden success in the competitive art world seemed to be a noncoincidence after years of dedication and hard work.
3. The team concluded that the patterns observed in the data reflected a noncoincidence rather than random chance.
4. His unexpected encounter with an old friend in a foreign country was a delightful noncoincidence that sparked fond memories.
5. The alignment of their schedules for a meeting felt like a fortunate noncoincidence that neither of them had anticipated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noncoincidence>