

NONCOMMISSIONED

Meaning: Noncommissioned refers to a military rank that is not commissioned, typically held by enlisted personnel who have not received a commission as an officer, often responsible for leadership and training within their units.

1. The noncommissioned officer led the training exercises with exceptional skill and dedication.
2. In the military, noncommissioned ranks are crucial for maintaining discipline and order among troops.
3. She received recognition for her leadership as a noncommissioned member of the unit during the deployment.
4. Noncommissioned personnel often serve as the backbone of the armed forces, providing invaluable support to commissioned officers.
5. His years of experience as a noncommissioned officer allowed him to mentor younger soldiers effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noncommissioned>