

NONCOMMUNION

Meaning: Noncommunion refers to the state or practice of abstaining from participation in communal religious rituals, particularly the Eucharist or Communion, often due to personal beliefs or circumstances.

1. The concept of noncommunion can be challenging for those who value community and connection.
2. During the church service, the pastor explained the significance of noncommunion for certain individuals.
3. Noncommunion was a necessary practice for some members who were grappling with personal issues.
4. The decision to observe noncommunion was met with mixed reactions from the congregation.
5. In times of crisis, noncommunion can serve as a reflective period for spiritual growth and understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noncommunion>