

NONCONCLUDING

Meaning: Nonconcluding: not reaching a definitive conclusion or resolution; leaving matters unresolved.

1. The debate ended on a nonconcluding note, leaving many questions unanswered.
2. Her research presented intriguing theories, but ultimately remained nonconcluding.
3. The meeting was nonconcluding, with participants sharing ideas but failing to reach a consensus.
4. His argument was thorough yet nonconcluding, prompting further discussion among his peers.
5. The series of events unfolded in a nonconcluding manner, leaving the audience eager for more.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonconcluding>