

NONCONCUR

Meaning: Nonconcur means to disagree or withhold approval in a decision-making context.

1. The committee decided to nonconcur with the proposed changes to the policy.
2. Despite the overwhelming evidence, several members chose to nonconcur during the vote.
3. In a surprising twist, the majority of the board members nonconcurred with the CEO's plan.
4. The judge's decision to nonconcur with the previous ruling sent shockwaves through the legal community.
5. After much deliberation, she opted to nonconcur rather than compromise her principles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonconcur>