

NONCONSTAT

Meaning: Nonconstat refers to a legal term indicating that something is not established or confirmed due to a lack of evidence.

1. The phrase 'nonconstat' is often used in legal contexts to indicate that something is not established or confirmed.
2. In the absence of clear evidence, the court ruled that nonconstat applied to the claims made by the plaintiff.
3. The lawyer argued that the lack of documentation resulted in a situation of nonconstat regarding the defendant's obligations.
4. To resolve the case, the judge emphasized the principle of nonconstat, highlighting the need for substantial proof.
5. In legal terms, nonconstat serves as a reminder that assumptions cannot replace verified facts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonconstat>