

NONCONTAGIOUS

Meaning: Noncontagious refers to a condition or disease that cannot be transmitted from one person to another.

1. The doctor assured her that the rash was noncontagious and that her friends were safe.
2. Despite the outbreak of flu in the community, the pediatrician emphasized that most childhood illnesses are noncontagious.
3. Understanding that the skin condition was noncontagious helped to ease her anxiety about social interactions.
4. The researcher focused on noncontagious diseases to develop effective long-term health strategies.
5. In the public health seminar, experts discussed the importance of distinguishing between contagious and noncontagious illnesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noncontagious>