

NONDELIVERY

Meaning: Nondelivery refers to the failure to deliver goods or services as promised or expected.

1. The company faced significant financial losses due to the nondelivery of essential supplies.
2. Customers were frustrated by the repeated nondelivery of their orders, leading to a rise in complaints.
3. In cases of nondelivery, the policy clearly states that a full refund will be issued.
4. The investigation revealed that the nondelivery was caused by a logistical error at the warehouse.
5. Nondelivery of critical documents can lead to delays in project timelines and affect overall progress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nondelivery>