

NONDESCRIPT

Meaning: Nondescript: lacking distinctive or interesting features; unremarkable.

1. The restaurant was located in a nondescript building that blended in with its surroundings.
2. Her outfit was so nondescript that nobody noticed when she entered the party.
3. Despite its nondescript facade, the cafe served some of the best coffee in the city.
4. The town was filled with nondescript houses that lacked any distinctive features.
5. He had a nondescript personality, making it difficult for people to remember him.
6. The building was a nondescript structure that blended seamlessly into the urban landscape.
7. Despite its nondescript appearance, the restaurant served some of the best food in the city.
8. She wore a nondescript outfit that allowed her to blend in with the crowd at the festival.
9. His nondescript demeanor made it difficult for anyone to remember him after the meeting.
10. They chose a nondescript hotel on the outskirts of town, hoping to avoid the tourist crowds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nondescript>