NONEFFECTIVE

Meaning: Noneffective: lacking the ability to produce a desired or intended result; ineffective.

1. The new policy proved noneffective in reducing employee turnover.
2. Despite his efforts, the team's strategy was ultimately noneffective against the competition.
3. Many treatments were found to be noneffective, leading researchers to seek better alternatives.
4. The advertisement campaign was deemed noneffective, failing to attract any new customers.
5. Her attempts to resolve the conflict were noneffective, as the parties remained at odds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noneffective