

NONELECTION

Meaning: Nonelection: a situation in which an election does not take place, often due to the absence of candidates or lack of voter interest.

1. The committee decided to declare a nonelection after the only candidate withdrew.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the town experienced a nonelection due to lack of interest from the residents.
3. The absence of candidates led to a nonelection, leaving many citizens bewildered and frustrated.
4. Voter apathy resulted in a nonelection, prompting local leaders to rethink their engagement strategies.
5. Following the controversies surrounding the previous election, the council opted for a nonelection this year.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonelection>