

NONESSENTIAL

Meaning: Nonessential refers to something that is not absolutely necessary or vital, often considered as extraneous or supplementary.

1. The committee decided to cut nonessential expenses in order to stay within budget.
2. During the project review, she emphasized the importance of focusing on essential tasks rather than getting bogged down by nonessential details.
3. In times of crisis, people often realize that many of their daily routines involve nonessential activities.
4. The organization was able to streamline its operations by eliminating nonessential roles and responsibilities.
5. He found himself surrounded by nonessential clutter that distracted him from his main goals.
6. The meeting was filled with nonessential discussions that wasted everyone's time.
7. During the renovation, we decided to focus on essential repairs and leave the nonessential updates for later.
8. She realized that many of her possessions were nonessential and chose to donate them to charity.
9. In times of crisis, it's important to cut back on nonessential expenses to save money.
10. The app's nonessential features cluttered the interface, making it difficult to navigate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonessential>