

NONEXECUTION

Meaning: Nonexecution refers to the failure to carry out or fulfill the terms of a contract or agreement.

1. The nonexecution of the contract led to significant financial losses for the company.
2. In legal contexts, nonexecution can result in the annulment of agreements.
3. There was growing concern over the nonexecution of vital policy reforms.
4. The nonexecution of the project was attributed to a lack of funding and resources.
5. Many stakeholders were frustrated by the nonexecution of promised initiatives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonexecution>