

NONIMPORTING

Meaning: Nonimporting refers to a policy or strategy that restricts or eliminates the importation of goods to promote local industry and reduce dependence on foreign products.

1. The country's nonimporting policy aims to boost local industries and reduce reliance on foreign goods.
2. Many businesses are benefiting from the government's nonimporting strategy, which encourages domestic production.
3. The nonimporting regulations were implemented to support the economy during the trade disruptions.
4. Some consumers are frustrated by nonimporting measures, as they limit access to international products.
5. The nonimporting stance taken by the administration has sparked debates about sustainability and self-sufficiency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonimporting>